

Directions to University of West Alabama - Bell Conference Center -

The University of West Alabama is located on U.S. Highway 11 in Livingston, Alabama. It is 116 miles southwest of Birmingham, 130 miles west of Montgomery, and 37 miles east of Meridian, Mississippi.

- Traveling south/west (from Tuscaloosa/Birmingham) on I-59/I-20, exit #17 (Livingston/Boyd). Turn left onto AL-28 and travel for 1.8 miles. Turn right onto U.S. Highway 11 (first traffic signal).
- Traveling north/east (from Mississippi) on I-59/I-20, exit #17 (Livingston/Boyd). Turn right onto AL-28. Turn Right onto U.S. Highway 11 (first traffic signal).
- Traveling north on AL-17, cross over I-59/I-20 turn right onto U.S. Highway 11.
- Then on Highway 11, pass the water tower. Turn right at the second UWA sign (first traffic signal), enter campus, and turn at the next right. Parking is on your left. Walk back across the road you entered campus on, at the cross walk. The Bell Conference Center is the second building on the left. Walk around to enter through the lobby in the front of the building.

-
- Traveling west on US-80, turn right onto AL-28 (Livingston) and travel for 13 miles. Turn right onto U.S. Highway 11.
 - Traveling north on AL-43, turn left onto AL-28 in Linden and travel for 16 miles. Turn left onto US-80 and travel for 5 miles. Turn right onto AL-28 and travel for 13 miles. Turn right onto U.S. Highway 11.
 - Then on Highway 11, take a left at the second entrance into campus (second traffic signal). Then turn at the next right. Parking is on your left. Walk back across the road you entered campus on at the cross walk. The Bell Conference Center is the second building on the left. Walk around and enter through the lobby in the front of the building.